

Independent review: Have your say on the response to Cyclone Gabrielle

Shared on behalf of the Independent Civil Defence Emergency Management (CDEM) Cyclone Gabrielle Review

The panel leading the Independent Review into the Hawke's Bay Civil Defence Emergency Management (CDEM) Group's response to Cyclone Gabrielle has launched a short and simple online survey to capture local residents' experiences from the days immediately leading into the event and the immediate emergency response stage, prior to the region's move toward recovery. While Central Hawke's Bay District have had our own local conversations and surveys, this is your chance to share your experiences and views anonymously in to this regional, independent review. The findings will also help identify learnings, improve resilience, and ensure Hawke's Bay has the capability and capacity to support better emergency management outcomes for its communities.

The survey closes on 7 December 2023. All survey responses are private and confidential and can be filled out by scanning the QR code or visiting www.hbemergency.govt.nz/cyclone-gabrielle-review
