APPENDIX TWO: NATIONAL ENVIRONMENTAL STANDARD FOR CONTAMINATED LAND GUIDANCE

Resource consents are required to be assessed under the Resource Management (National Environmental Standard for Assessing and Managing Contaminants in Soil to Protect Human Health) Regulations 2011. This is done in conjunction with a resource consent and no separate application is required to be made.

The Ministry for the Environment publishes a Hazardous Activities and Industries List (HAIL) which can be found on their website. It is recommended that applicants consult this list before lodging an application, as if a HAIL activity has occurred on the site previously, or you are proposing to undertake an activity that is on the HAIL you will be requested to provide a contaminated land report from a technical expert.
