1. Foundation Standard

Purpose

The purpose of the first set of national planning standards (the planning standards) is to improve the efficiency and effectiveness of the planning system by providing nationally consistent:

- structure
- format
- definitions
- noise and vibration metrics
- electronic functionality and accessibility

for regional policy statements, regional plans, district plans and combined plans under the Resource Management Act 1991 ('RMA').

The planning standards do not alter the effect or outcomes of policy statements or plans.

Interpretation of terms in the planning standards

1. 'Policy statement or plan' includes: a regional policy statement, a proposed regional policy statement, a proposed plan, a plan, a variation or a change.
2. 'Combined plan' means a plan that meets the RMA requirements of two or more of the following: a regional policy statement, a regional plan (including a regional coastal plan) or a district plan.
3. 'ePlan' means an online interactive policy statement or plan.
4. 'Provisions' means all content in a policy statement or plan, including but not limited to background content, issues, objectives, policies, methods, rules, and anticipated environmental results.
5. 'Part [#]' is a title only, which groups together one or more chapters, appendices or maps. It is shown in the planning standards as all-caps white text on navy blue background. Parts have no provisions separate from their underlying chapters, appendices or maps.
6. 'Heading' is a title only, which groups together one or more chapters under a common theme for the plan users' ease of reference. It is shown in the planning standards as all-caps blue text. Headings have no provisions separate from their underlying chapters.
7. 'Chapter' is the main grouping of provisions in a policy statement or plan. It is shown in the planning standards as text to the right of a 'Chapters:' identifier.
8. 'Section' is a sub-grouping of provisions within a chapter. It is shown in the planning standards as text below or to the right of a 'Sections:' identifier.
9. '[square brackets]' means the local authority must enter its own applicable title or content. '(Round brackets)' have their standard grammatical meaning.

Mandatory directions

1. Every policy statement or plan must comply with the 1. Foundation Standard.
2. Except for the mandatory directions in 16.A Electronic accessibility and functionality, if a proposed policy statement or proposed plan complies with all the relevant planning standards, the operative policy statement or operative plan that will be replaced by the proposed policy statement or proposed plan does not have to comply with the planning standards.

3. The planning standards must be used in conjunction with each other where relevant. Table 1 sets out which planning standards are relevant to each type of policy statement or plan.
4. An appropriate term must be used wherever tangata whenua/mana whenua is shown in the planning standards. The appropriate term must be determined through engagement with affected groups, and may vary depending on the context. If agreement on an appropriate term cannot be reached through engagement, local authorities must use the term 'tangata whenua'.
5. Tangata whenua/mana whenua content must be integrated throughout the policy statement or plan where the local authority determines it appropriate.
6. The local authority seal and date the policy statement or plan was made operative must be included, below the title of the policy statement or plan in accordance with RMA Schedule 1 clause 17(3).
7. Unless otherwise directed in these planning standards, local authorities may use cross-references and links within the policy statement or plan. Any references or links to external material not incorporated by reference under RMA Schedule 1 Part 3 must be identified as not having legal effect beyond the scope provided for in the policy statement or plan.

11. Regional Spatial Layers Standard

Mandatory directions

1. Where a regional policy statement, a regional plan or a regional component of a combined plan uses a spatial layer that has the functions described in table 17:
 - a. the policy statement or plan must use the name of the relevant spatial layer
 - b. provisions introduced by the spatial layer must be located in the location identified.
2. In addition to the spatial layers in table 17, other spatial layers may be used within regional policy statements, regional plans and regional components of combined plans (provided they do not overlap with the spatial layers specified in this standard).

Table 17: Spatial layers for regional policy statements, regional plans and regional components of combined plans table

Spatial layer name	Function	Location of spatial layer provisions
Zone	A zone spatially identifies and manages an area with common environmental characteristics or where environmental outcomes are sought, by bundling compatible activities or effects together, and controlling those that are incompatible. In regional plans, zones can only be applied to the coastal marine area. In combined plans with district plan and regional plan components, a zone can be both seaward and landward of mean high water springs.	Zone chapters or sections
Overlay	An overlay spatially identifies distinctive values, risks or other factors that require management.	Domain and topic chapters, and freshwater management unit, catchment and area chapters
Precinct	A precinct spatially identifies and manages an area where additional place-based provisions apply to modify or refine aspects of the policy approach or outcomes anticipated in the underlying zone(s). In combined plans with district plan and regional plan components, a precinct can be both seaward and landward of mean high water springs.	If apply to only one zone, use in the associated zone chapter or section If apply to multiple zones, use in the sections of the Coastal precincts chapter
Specific control	A specific control spatially identifies where a site or area has provisions that are different from other spatial layers or region-wide provisions that apply to that site or area.	Relevant chapters or sections
Freshwater management unit	A freshwater management unit's function and requirements are set in the National Policy Statement for Freshwater Management 2014 (amended 2017).	Freshwater management unit chapters
Airshed	An airshed spatially identifies where the Minister for the Environment has specified an airshed under the Resource Management (National Environmental Standards for Air Quality) Regulations 2004.	Air chapter
Area	An area spatially identifies an area, which is not a zone, overlay, specific control, freshwater management unit or airshed, where activities or classes of activities are managed in a certain way.	Area chapters

12. District Spatial Layers Standard

Mandatory directions

1. Where a district plan or a district plan component of a combined plan uses a spatial layer that has the functions described in table 18:
 - a. the plan must use the name of the relevant spatial layer
 - b. provisions introduced by the spatial layer must be located in the location identified.
2. Other than the spatial layers identified in table 18, no other spatial layers may be created.

Overlays	An overlay spatially identifies distinctive values, risks or other factors which require management in a different manner from underlying zone provisions.	District-wide matters chapters for district plans Domain and topic chapters for combined plans with a district component
Precincts	A precinct spatially identifies and manages an area where additional place-based provisions apply to modify or refine aspects of the policy approach or outcomes anticipated in the underlying zone(s).	If apply to only one zone, in the associated zone chapter or section If apply to multiple zones, in the multi-zone precincts chapters
Specific controls	A specific control spatially identifies where a site or area has provisions that are different from other spatial layers or district-wide provisions that apply to that site or area (for example where verandah requirements apply, or where a different maximum height on a particular site applies).	Relevant chapters or sections
Development areas	A development area spatially identifies and manages areas where plans such as concept plans, structure plans, outline development plans, master plans or growth area plans apply to determine future land use or development. When the associated development is complete, the development areas spatial layer is generally removed from the plan either through a trigger in the development area provisions or at a later plan change.	Development area chapters
Designations	Spatially identifies where a designation is included in a plan under section 168 or section 168A or clause 4 of Schedule 1 of the RMA.	Designations chapters
Heritage orders	Spatially identifies heritage orders enabled under section 189 of the RMA.	Historic heritage chapter

13. Mapping Standard

2. A policy statement or plan must use the symbols in table 20 wherever maps display the features listed in that table and, if required:
 - a. an alternative vector type may be used to support data capture, but still represented in accordance with table 20 (eg, a polygon may be used for data capture associated with a line or point symbol).
 - b. symbols may be labelled on maps.

14. Definitions Standard

Mandatory directions

1. Where terms defined in the Definitions List are used in a policy statement or plan, and the term is used in the same context as the definition, local authorities must use the definition as defined in the Definitions List. However if required, they may define:
 - a. terms that are a subcategory of, or have a narrower application than, a defined term in the Definitions List. Any such definitions must be consistent with the higher level definition in the Definitions List.
 - b. additional terms that do not have the same or equivalent meaning as a term defined in the Definitions List.
2. Te reo Māori terms used in rules must be defined or translated in English in the Definitions chapter.
3. When a definition in the Definitions List is used, consequential amendments may be required to the policy statement or plan to ensure that the application of the definition does not alter the effect or outcomes of policy statements or plans.
4. Where the Definitions List incorporates a definition from legislation, the definition applied is the version included in the legislation on the date of gazettal of this standard.
5. Local authorities must consider whether to:
 - a. include, or cross reference to, diagrams to illustrate definitions
 - b. include instructions on how definitions relate to one another (eg, nesting tables or Venn diagrams).
6. If a term is used in more than one context (eg, 'bed' may relate to the bottom of a river or a place to sleep), local authorities must, in their Definitions chapter, add the context in which the term is defined in brackets after the term name eg, bed (in relation to lakes, rivers and the sea).
7. Definitions of terms, whether from the Definitions List or other sources, must be listed numerically and then alphabetically as one list.
